Stradiot new Head of Investment at 6B47

Vienna, 10.05.2021 – After setting the course for 6B47's Corporate Finance & Investment division in the fall of 2020 with Elke Plazeriano at the top, the new appointment for the Investor Relations position now followed in the spring.

Christoph Stradiot (41) joined the team in March 2021 as the new Head of Investment & Relationship Management.

In this function, he is responsible for all mezzanine and equity issues as well as the Real Estate Club. A native of Vienna, he studied at the Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration and the IESE Business School in Navarra (Spain).

After holding professional positions at Erste Group Immorent AG and Raiffeisen Bank International AG, he was most recently Associate Director at Ernst & Young in the Markets division and before that worked for more than four years in transaction consulting in Vienna.

"With Christoph Stradiot, we have found an expert in the investment sector who brings his long-standing network to the table," says CEO Sebastian G. Nitsch, confirming his personnel decision.

Coordinating the financing of 1.6 billion euros of project volume

The department's task is to provide the best possible service for our private as well as institutional investors, who have invested around 160 million euros in projects in Germany, Poland and Austria. Elke Plazeriano and her team coordinate the entire structuring of debt as well as equity with more than thirty-five banks throughout the 6B47 group of companies, both at project and corporate level.
